

THE WRITING CENTER - TWC

SSS Vision:

The SSS aspires to be recognized as a reference for the quality academic support it provides across the curriculum to help learners succeed and reach their full potential.

SSS Mission:

The SSS is an academic support structure consisting of four subunits that aim to foster student improvement and success across all disciplines of study. The Writing Center, Learning Enhancement Center, ANJIZ Resource Lab, and the Institutional Standardized Testing Lab cooperatively function to assist learners to improve language development, mathematics and sciences aptitude, computer literacy, familiarization with summative forms of assessment, and quality research practices that culminate and contribute to students' overall academic success.

PRIMARY PROGRAMS & SERVICES

I ❤️
TWC

ADDITIONAL TWC PROGRAMS & SERVICES

Assistance to Students with Disabilities

TWC provides peer tutorials to students in need at the Unit for Students with Disabilities, as well provides dictation services to assist faculty during quizzes, tests, and exams.

- Alternative Location for Students
- Assessment Assistance for Faculty

Document Assistance

TWC instructors provide professional editing services to faculty members for purpose of research publication. Prominent academic journals require research submissions to be edited by fluent or native speakers of English.

Multiple Language Support

TWC promotes academic writing skills and language development in four languages; Arabic, English, French, and German.

Self-Study

Available daily throughout the day for students to conduct individual study and research on their own within an engaging learning environment.

PEER TUTORIALS

دروس عملية مصغرة

SSS peer tutors are accomplished graduate and undergraduate students from diverse disciplines who individually provide academic support to students. Tutorials are an excellent method for learners to seek advice, practice, and review course material with a peer mentor in preparation for an examination, test, or quiz.

READING AND WRITING WORKSHOPS

ورش عمل

TWC provides learning opportunities for small groups of students to practice academic writing and further their language development. Workshops focus on improving writing proficiency and reading comprehension in efforts to support students' performance on examinations. Workshops are student-centered oriented, promoting engagement with students through daily reading & writing activities.

CONVERSATION SESSIONS

برامج المحادثة

TWC provides engaging and interactive opportunities for students to practice their oral communication skills. Studies have shown that speaking enhances grammar, vocabulary acquisition, and boosts a learner's confidence in learning a new language. Conversations sessions are available in Arabic, English, French, and German.
