:21/09/2023 My commitment to community and administrative service is deeply embedded in my professional ethos. I have served on multiple departmental and college-level committees, focusing on academic integrity and operational efficiency. My experience with the Global Entrepreneurship Monitor in 2019 has broadened my understanding of Oman`s entrepreneurial landscape, benefiting both my teaching and administrative roles. I have advised 51 students, garnering positive evaluations consistently. Furthermore, my contributions extend to workshop facilitation and academic journal establishment, adding another layer to my community involvement.
