

Dr Majid Salim Mohammed Al-Ruqeishi

HoS, Assistant Professor

Mathematical and Physical Sciences - Physics Sciences Section

College of Arts and Sciences

University of Nizwa, Sultanate of Oman

Extension: 928

eMail: majiduon@unizwa.edu.om

Office Location: 11G-22

Time at UoN: Since 2021

Marital Status: Married

Received Ph.D. in Physics/Nanotechnology from the University of Malaya in 2010, M.A. or M.S. in Physics from the University of Malaya in 2006, and B.A. in Physics/Math from the Sultan Qaboos University in 2000/2001. His research interests are: Fabrications and characterization of (2D) graphene and 1D nanostructures using chemical vapour deposition and chemical techniques for innovative applications in green/renewable energy and oil/gas industry. Recently, I am focused on graphene-based water filters and the use of graphene oxide for environmental applications like oil water separation
